

1252 Jackson Street, N.E.
Washington, D.C.
August 5, 1945.

Dear Mr. Manley,

I am writing to in reference to our appointment for August 8, 1945.

I think I have been a little hasty in accepting your proposition.
For reasons I would rather not disclose I think I would like to complete my education before venturing into cunary competition.

Knowing a little of Negro baseball,
I think your proposition was very liberal and I appreciate your interest and fairness in the matter.

In the future if I decide to play baseball and my services are still discreable to you, I would like to give you first preference.

I still have your card and if at any time you desire to contact me use address in the letter head or phone De-catur 5643.

Sincerely,
Leary P. Day Jr.
